By Way of Explanation . . .

IN presenting this, the FIRST Directory of the Cities of Norfolk, Portsmouth and Berkley published by us since purchasing all the rights, titles, and interests of the Chataigne Directory Company, we wish to thank the citizens of these cities for the very liberal patronage they have given us, and for the great interest displayed by them in assisting us to present this work. Owing to various circumstances, over which we had no control, we were unable to incorporate some new and improved features in this edition, but we feel safe in asserting that it will be found as accurate and reliable as a work of this character can be made—having spared no expense to accomplish this end. A glance through its pages, and a comparison with other publications will, we think, convince all that we are aiming to give Norfolk, Portsmouth and Berkley a Directory second to none.

On the following page we present some facts and figures which speak in no uncertain manner of the great advantages these cities enjoy in the commercial world.

We wish to return thanks to all who in any way facilitated our work, and to acknowledge valuable aid from Samuel G. Borum, Esq., Secretary Chamber of Commerce ; Maj. Chas. Pickett, Secretary Business Men's Association ; W. T. Brooke, Esq., City Engineer of Norfolk, and Bascom Sykes, Esq., City Engineer of Portsmouth.

Respectfully,

J. L. HILL PRINTING CO.,

Owners and Publishers.

A Great Harbor and Trade Centre.

[From "Norfolk, Va., and its Environs."]

Beyond question Norfolk, with its splendid harbor, is a point to which a great many eyes are turned in these days. Its nearness to the ocean, deep water, unobstructed by bars, or ice in the coldest winter, climatic conditions made favorable by proximity to the Gulf stream, never experiencing frigid or torrid extremes, neither blizzards, cyclones, or hurricanes to endanger persons or property, nor destructive to shipping, which may ride at anchor absolutely secure from disaster, has and is attracting the attention of this and foreign nations as well to the unlimited facilities at hand for accommodating the trade and commerce of the world in this port.

The Elizabeth river has three cities bunched in its forks, viz: Norfolk, Portsmouth, and Berkley. These three form the bulk of one great business community.

Socially, likewise, they are hardly divisible: insperably, we may say, indeed. But politically they are independent and distinct—three different bodies corporate in point of fact.

Norfolk is distinguished among American cities for its COTTON, LUMBER, TRUCK, COAL, OYSTER, FISH, and PEANUT trades.

For its FOREIGN and COASTWISE TRAFFIC, its NAVY-YARD and SEASIDE RESORTS.

It is in LATITUDE 37 degrees north and LONGITUDE 76 degrees west, approximately; on Elizabeth river at Hampton Roads.

Its mean SUMMER TEMPERATURE is 70 degrees; mean WINTER, 40; its RAINFALL about 50 inches a year, with average monthly installments.

The estimated POPULATION of the Metropolitan district is 110,000—white, 75,000; black, 35,000. The DEATH RATE, white, is 17.

The TAX VALUATIONS are $30,000,000.

The SCHOOLS, public and private, number 60.

The REAL ESTATE SALES and BETTERMENTS of six years past have been $30,000,000; over 5,000 acres of suburb have been built upon in that time.

IN presenting this, the FIRST Directory of the Cities of Norfolk, Portsmouth and Berkley published by us since purchasing all the rights, titles, and interests of the Chataigne Directory Company, we wish to thank the citizens of these cities for the very liberal patronage they have given us, and for the great interest displayed by them in assisting us to present this work. Owing to various circumstances, over which we had no control, we were unable to incorporate some new and improved features in this edition, but we feel safe in asserting that it will be found as accurate and reliable as a work of this character can be made—having spared no expense to accomplish this end. A glance through its pages, and a comparison with other publications will, we think, convince all that we are aiming to give Norfolk, Portsmouth and Berkley a Directory second to none.

On the following page we present some facts and figures which speak in no uncertain manner of the great advantages these cities enjoy in the commercial world.

We wish to return thanks to all who in any way facilitated our work, and to acknowledge valuable aid from Samuel G. Borum, Esq., Secretary Chamber of Commerce; Maj. Chas. Pickett, Secretary Business Men's Association; W. T. Brooke, Esq., City Engineer of Norfolk, and Bascom Sykes, Esq., City Engineer of Portsmouth.

Respectfully,

J. L. HILL PRINTING CO.,

A Great Harbor and Trade Centre.

[From "Norfolk, Va., and its Environs."]

Beyond question Norfolk, with its splendid harbor, is a point to which a great many eyes are turned in these days. Its nearness to the ocean, deep water, unobstructed by bars, or ice in the coldest winter, climatic conditions made favorable by proximity to the Gulf stream, never experiencing frigid or torrid extremes, neither blizzards, cyclones, or hurricanes to endanger persons or property, nor destructive to shipping, which may ride at anchor absolutely secure from disaster, has and is attracting the attention of this and foreign nations as well to the unlimited facilities at hand for accommodating the trade and commerce of the world in this port.

The Elizabeth river has three cities bunched in its forks, viz: Norfolk, Portsmouth, and Berkley. These three form the bulk of one great business community.

Socially, likewise, they are hardly divisible: inseparably, we may say, indeed. But politically they are independent and distinct—three different bodies corporate in point of fact.

Norfolk is distinguished among American cities for its COTTON, LUMBER, TRUCK, COAL, OYSTER, FISH, and PEANUT trades.

For its FOREIGN and COASTWISE TRAFFIC, its NAVY-YARD and SEASIDE RESORTS.

It is in LATITUDE 37 degrees north and LONGITUDE 76 degrees west, approximately; on Elizabeth river at Hampton Roads.

Its mean SUMMER TEMPERATURE is 70 degrees; mean WINTER, 40; its RAINFALL about 50 inches a year, with average monthly installments.

The estimated POPULATION of the Metropolitan district is 110,000—white, 75,000; black, 35,000. The DEATH RATE, white, is 17.

The TAX VALUATIONS are $30,000,000.

The SCHOOLS, public and private, number 60.

The REAL ESTATE SALES and BETTERMENTS of six years past have been $30,000,000; over 5,000 acres of suburb have been built upon in that time.

Streets, Houses, and Occupants

OF THE

CITY OF NORFOLK FOR 1897.

Arranged Alphabetically and Numerically, with Occupant's Name after each House.

NOTE.—Blanks after numbers signify that such are vacant. Dash (—) before names denotes the house should have a number between the one preceding and following it. Two intersecting streets coming together show there are no houses between them.

| ACROPOLIS                                                                                         | (543)                                                                            | ALLYNTOWN                                                |

Streets, Houses, and Occupants

OF THE

CITY OF PORTSMOUTH FOR 1897.

Arranged Alphabetically and Numerically, with Occupant's Name after each House.

NOTE.—Blanks after numbers signify that such are vacant. Dash (—) before names denotes the house should have a number between the one preceding and following it. Two intersecting streets coming together show there are no houses between them.

It will be seen that the Berkley Driven Well Water contains only one-eighth as much chlorine as that allowed by the most conservative of the above authorities, and as a matter of fact I know of no water supply showing a better analysis than this.

"During a trip in the eastern portion of the State, in the counties of Camden, Currituck, Pasquotank, Chowan, Perquimans, Gates, Hertford, Washington, Dare, Hyde, and others, I noticed that nearly every farmer and every wayside merchant and cross-road store received the "NORFOLK VIRGINIAN."—Correspondent Raleigh (N. C.) Observer.

THE..... DAILY NORFOLK VIRGINIAN,

ESTABLISHED 1865.

The Weekly Virginian and Carolinian,

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

M. GLENNAN, Owner and Editor.

Norfolk is the second city in population in Virginia, and in the past few years has rapidly increased in business and population. It has a population, according to census of 1890, reaching nearly 36,000. Its population at present is estimated at 55,000, and within a radius of five miles from its market-house are 120,000 people; while directly tributary to it as their market are the counties of Norfolk, Princess Anne, Nansemond, Isle of Wight, Southampton, Sussex, Surry, Mathews, Gloucester, Elizabeth City, York, Warwick, Accomack, and Northampton, in Virginia, and of Currituck, Camden, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Chowan, Gates, Hertford, Northampton, Bertie, Washington, Beaufort, Tyrrel, Dare, Martin, Edgecombe, Wilson, Greene, Craven, and Halifax, in the State of North Carolina, representing a population of 800,000. She is the third cotton port of the Atlantic coast.

NEARLY 1,000,000.

The VIRGINIAN is Norfolk's leading journal, and is unrivalled in Tidewater Virginia and Eastern Carolina as an advertising medium. Its daily circulation largely exceeds that of any other journal in Tidewater Virginia and Eastern North Carolina.

The VIRGINIAN'S subscription and disposition books are always open to the investigation of the advertiser.

The VIRGINIAN'S circulation in Norfolk and Portsmouth and suburban towns is greater than that of any paper published or circulated in the two cities.

Its mail or country subscription is greater than the combined mail circulation of all daily papers in Norfolk and Portsmouth.

Estimates for advertising will be promptly attended to.
